Motivational Speaker Gives Readers “Out of the Box” Solutions to Personal and World Problems

Out of the Box: Sharing the Gift You are with the World* by Robert Leigh Pruitt, II is an inspiring guide to help readers discover and share their best selves

LAUREL, Md. – Out of the Box: Sharing the Gift You are with the World by Robert Leigh Pruitt is an inspirational guidebook that urges reader to serve others and break through their own inner prisons.

Author and respected leadership trainer Pruitt uses the character of Dorothy in The Wizard of Oz to show readers how to move away from their own personal gray Kansas and find joy by being of service to others.

Written in clear, compassionate prose, Out of the Box tackles social problems like domestic violence, teenage suicide, divorce, racism and more. Pruitt advises readers to embrace the parts of themselves they do not love and to see them as gifts, in order to better recognize the gifts in others. Pruitt interweaves biblical text and what he calls “Discovery Moments” to help readers develop new intuitive skills.

To help spread the word, Pruitt is encouraging people to do what he does—give away copies of his book to strangers. In fact, he plans to randomly mail the book to people around the world and is conducting a spiritually-based book club based on the book. A loving world is possible, Pruitt suggests. His wise comforting book is the first step in achieving it.
